

CIA Minutes February 26 2019

Members present:

- Pam Edge, Rebecca Ashworth, Nicole Johnson, Lois Jackson, Lauri Robinson, Lynn Matthews
- Next Meeting March 5th at 5:15.

Old Business:

- Valentines Dance was much better—Ms Fowler was the DJ and she kept couples busy. Candy was a big hit. Two photographers were present for many photos.
- Muffins with Mom was less attended because of the food served in past years (muffins). This year there was a breakfast buffet to make moms feel special. It will be the same for Donuts for Dad.
- Seuss on the loose is this weekend at Jasper County High School. Family fun and Ferst Foundation gets donations to keep growing by placing good literature in the hands of our children starting very young until 5th birthday.
- STEAM Expo at High School has been cancelled

New Business:

- Spring Festival Saturday April 16
- Vendors are being locked in by parents and teachers
- Donations being gathered by parents and teachers
- CIA members will make bags for silent auction donations
- 16 games will be available—4 per grade level (teachers will choose games on Monday during Faculty Meeting)
- Ms. Edge is ordering decorations and prizes—and any items needed for games
- Tickets bags will be put together by Car rider moms who get here early each day. Ms Ashworth will lead that activity
- Tickets will be the same price as last year: $5.00 bag is 10 tickets $10.00 bag is 20 tickets
- Tickets may be earned by students for Can good drive—5 canned goods = 5 tickets
- Cake walk needs baked goods—Ms. Ashworth will be calling members for donations and that activity will require two tickets. All others will be a single ticket
- Fun Run will be the Shamrock Shuffle--$15.00 shirts/race entry Ms Amanda has that planned out
- Grandparents Night during book fair week April 23 from 4 to 6:30. Free craft, free snacks, and option to browse the book fair. Photo booth?
- Kindergarten Fine Arts Night April 25th. Kindergarteners to perform. Possible STEAM display for JCCS. Artwork for K-2nd for sale and Chick-fil-a supper.
- New Superintendent to be announced February 28 at 12:30pm. It has been a long, well planned search for the best candidate for our system. The board has put in many hours to make the choice for Superintendent.
- Literacy Grant will help with the Ferst foundation for the 3 years it is in place. Seuss on the loose funds the program for free books from Ferst Foundation
